

Re: RM-10787

I am against this petition and think Morse Code testing should continue to be an Amateur Radio License requirement for operation below 30 Mhz. This is because, in many instances, Morse Code communication is necessary or is the only means to reliably transmit the information needed.